CONTEST 2010

Enter up to 15 Photos!

GIVE US YOUR
BEST SHOT

Your photo could be seen by more than 80,000 readers when you enter it in Pennsylvania's premier photo contest. The contest is open to anyone who doesn't earn a living as a professional photographer. You may enter as many as 15 color images taken by you of scenes, people or other subjects in Pennsylvania. Make sure your entry is postmarked by April 15, 2010.

After the judges have selected our contest's winners, whose photos will appear in the July/August 2010 and September/October 2010 issues, the editor chooses a select group from the finalists for possible use in upcoming issues. If we decide to use your nonwinning photo, we'll contact you to arrange for its one-time use. Good luck!

Rules of the Contest:

- Contest is open to amateur photographers only (those who do not earn a majority (over half) of their income as a photographer).
- Enter color prints that are unmounted and at least 5"x7" but not more than 9"x12". If the original image is a digital file, send a print of each file and include an original image file (in TIF or JPG format) on a CD-ROM or DVD.
- Each entrant may submit up to 15 photos.
- Entered photos must have been taken recently (from January 1, 2005, to present) by the entrant of a Pennsylvania locale/subject.
- A copy (photocopy is acceptable) of a completed and signed entry form must be taped to the back of each photo. (Do not use paper clips and do not write on the backs of prints.)
- If you would like your photographs returned, enclose one large self-addressed envelope and affix postage to it for the return of all entries. Write "s.a.s.e. enclosed" directly under your return address on your entry envelope.
- The publisher will exercise reasonable care with entries but cannot be held liable for loss or damage of any entry... do not send us any image that is irreplaceable.
- Judging of the submitted prints will take place in May 2010; winners will be notified in late June 2010. All entries (with appropriate s.a.s.e.—see rule #6) will be returned at that time with a listing of the contest winners.
- At the discretion of the editor, each winning photo will be published in one future issue of the magazine and on the magazine's Web site (www.pa-mag.com) without additional compensation to the entrant. Entrant retains all other rights to the photograph, granting Pennsylvania Magazine one-time use rights for display of the winning photo in the magazine and on its Web site.
- Names and hometowns of winners will be published in the July/August 2010 and/or the September/October 2010 issue of the magazine, and announcement materials with this information will be sent to entrants and public media and on the magazine's Web site.
- Finalist images in the contest will be considered for use (pending approval by photographer) in a future issue of the magazine. Photographers who agree to our use of their nonwinning entries and whose images appear in the magazine will be paid our regular fee for one-time use. ■
